We need your help in supporting the scholarships, awards, and programs of Delaware Valley Engineers Week and in making the upcoming Engineers Week a success.

Besides monetary donations, the Club recognizes other ways of contributing. We always welcome individuals who are interested in volunteering their time to assist in any of the Delaware Valley Engineers Week programs. We also encourage your company's participation in activities that celebrate and promote the engineering profession, not just during Engineers Week, but also throughout the year.

If you have any questions or you would like to receive further information concerning any of the Delaware Valley Engineers Week activities, please visit our website at www.dvewc.org, call 215-985-5701 or email contact@engrclub.org.

Engineers' Club of Philadelphia
Founded in 1877

The Engineers Week Committee of the Engineers' Club of Philadelphia sponsors the Delaware Valley Engineers Week programs on behalf of the area's engineering and technical societies. The events and activities are supported by major corporations and individuals as well as participating societies and universities. All committee members are volunteers.

All funds contributed will be used exclusively for the celebration of Delaware Valley Engineers Week.
