Outstanding Math, Science, and Engineering Teacher Awards Nomination

The Philadelphia Engineering Foundation, in conjunction with the Delaware Valley Engineers Week Committee of the Engineers' Club of Philadelphia, administers the Outstanding Math, Science, and Engineering Teacher Awards as part of the celebration of Delaware Valley Engineers Week. One math, one science, and one engineering teacher, teaching in grades 6-12 in the Delaware Valley¹, will be recognized.

The award recipients are recognized at the Engineers Week Opening Ceremony on Thursday, February 15, 2024. The recipients and one guest will receive complimentary tickets; additional tickets can be purchased. The recipients of this award will be asked to provide some electronic photographs and a short bio for publicity purposes.

Applications must be returned no later than Friday, January 5th, 2025 (This is a two page form and is also available at www.engrclub.org in a form that can be filled out on the computer, saved and then submitted.)

E-Mail both pages of the completed application, with attachments, to: Ernest R. Hanna, PE to ernest.hanna@gza.com. Correspondence from the DVEW Committee will be via e-mail.

Questions: Contact Ernest Hanna at ernest.hanna@gza.com
